The faculties of BIMTEC are outstanding, their rich experience are always benefitted us. In a month the topics they covered and concise with examples are also excellent. Now I understand the topics discussed in class much better then earlier.

Thinking of spending weekends on studies might intimidate someone but skills that are being imparted in this program will open up a new avenue to understand International Trade. It is nice to be a participant in the “Diploma in foreign Trade”. Beyond academics there are a host of other activities which sharpens the niches of each individual. Some of the USPs of the program are:

- Heterogeneous group of participants from various industries dealing in Import & Export, bringing in their real life experiences/issues and sharing the same with the entire class.
- Experienced faculty sharing their knowledge with in-depth Course Materials, Real life Case Studies and Articles from researches done in various International Universities.
- Each class proceeds with study material letting participants to have an insight of the issue that is to be discussed. The best part of the Diploma program is that the flow of communication is not from one to all but it from all to all, thus making learning fun and also helping in adding value to International Trade.
